

Sustainable Energy Incubator Workshop: Resilience in a Clean Energy Future

WeWork 1st Floor Auditorium | 555 West 5th St, Los Angeles, CA 90013

Thursday, February 27th | 12:00 – 3:00 PM

12:00 PM Registration & Networking Lunch

12:30 PM Welcoming Remarks & Networking Activity

Clean Power Alliance and the Local Government Commission

Introduction to CPA's Critical Facilities Program

Ted Bardacke, Clean Power Alliance

What is resilience?

12:40 PM Energy Resilience

Stephen Gunther | Policy Manager, Distributed Energy Resources at CSE

Identifying risks facing California's energy systems and frameworks that are used to evaluate resiliency

1:00 PM Community Resilience

Kristen Pawling | Sustainability Program Director, LA County Chief Sustainability Office

Understanding the relationship between the built environment and social needs to achieve resiliency and resources available to Los Angeles communities and agencies.

1:20 PM Q&A / Networking Activity

How do we get there?

1:40 PM Roadblocks and Best Practices

Rebecca Hausheer | Director of Energy Services, The Energy Coalition

Discover tools for overcoming challenges that local communities encountered on their path to community resiliency

2:00 PM Energy Resiliency Case Studies

Steve Baule | Director of Special Projects for Sustainability, LADWP

How has the Los Angeles region maintained grid resiliency in the face of increasing occurrences of extreme heat and fires

2:20 PM Q&A

2:30 PM Adjourn